

NH 2003 Mercury Project for Home Care Clinical Staff

1. Do you use mercury-containing fever thermometers? ☐ Yes ☐ No
If so, how do you dispose of them?
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste (trash/garbage)
2. How do you dispose of your mercury-containing sphygmomanometers?
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste ☐ Never Disposed
3. How do you dispose of these batteries?
 - a) Lithium
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste
 - b) Nickel-cadmium (rechargeable battery)
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste
 - c) Mercury (alkaline batteries sold before May 13, 1996)
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste
 - d) Button Cell (may contain mercury and other hazardous substances)
☐ Recycle ☐ Hazardous Waste ☐ Medical Waste ☐ Solid Waste
4. Have you ever had to clean up a broken thermometer or sphygmomanometers?
☐ Yes ☐ No
5. Do you have a mercury spill procedure? ☐ Yes ☐ No
6. Are employees trained on mercury spill procedures? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Fax survey to Sara Johnson at (603) 271-0869 or email sjohnson@des.state.nh.us by August 15, 2003.